100 DOLLAR REWARD!

AN away from the subscriber, October 27th

1857, from his residence on Willow Swamp,

South Edisto River, Orangeburg District, South Carolina, a negro man named HOWARD, about six feet high, and otherwise well proportioned and of black complexion, full faced, high forehead, one eye, a prominent nose, and no whiskers; having one of the hands of a negro, and a mark resembling the letter H on the back of the neck. He had a scar on the forehead, the left foot. He speaks with fluency and ease; is rather assuming in his address, yet mild and humble in his manners. He is a shrewd fellow, and has been in the habit of

PROSPECTUS OF "THE MEDIUM."

A Newspaper to be published Daily and Weekly in New York and Washington City.

Such has been the progress of sectional feeling, that a mutual exchange of opinion between the North and the South has become indispensable to the public mind and restore mutual confidence and good will.

With this view, it is proposed to publish in New York and Washington City, a daily and weekly Newspaper, in which the ablest writers of both sections may present the facts and arguments upon which they rely, in support of the interests and institutions of each, under the hope that such a paper, conducted with fairness, moderation, and ability, and with a sincere desire to subvert sectional prejudice, will obtain extensive circulation, and exert a beneficial influence.

Part of the plan is to invite, by an offer of premiums, prize essays on the subjects of British

Abolition, British Commerce, British Finance,

British Banking, and British Diplomacy, and also on the American Tariff, American Commerce,

American Slavery, American Currency, and African Slavery. These questions, it is hoped will present in requisition the ablest pen in the country, and give to "The Medium" an interest and character which will secure for it a support commensurate with the expenditure necessarily incurred.

As the machinery of commerce and of credit is now organized, our Banks and our Currency are the weaker parts of the British system, and the causes of the expansion and contraction of the British Currency, caused by overtrading and speculations of the British people and British Bankers, necessarily produce ruinous expansions and contractions of our Currency, which enable British financiers, by the use of their credit, without an advance of capital, to levy upon our sums in the shape of profits on exchange, interest and commissions, inflicting at the same time severe losses by greatly depreciating the value of our money and property.

"The Medium" will advocate a modification of the laws regulating mail contracts with Railroad Companies, so as to authorize contracts for the perpetual use of railroads upon the payment of an amount of interest on the bonds of the Department, upon the interest, at six per cent, would be equal to the quarterly payments made under existing laws, and will further authorize the government to issue bank notes, under State law, on deposits of bonds of the federal or State government, on deposits of Railroad securities; because such a system would make the large sums invested in Railroads available as capital, and give a cheap, abundant and staple currency, and enable the farmer and the planter to obtain remu-nerating prices for their products, instead of being forced to sell them at a loss, and to send their labor to the British market, to be sold there by British agents at British prices; and because such a modification of the laws regulating mail contracts, and such a system of currency, would by such a modification of the tariff as will prevent fraud in the customs, and encourage our own industry, would consolidate the interests of the whole country, and abate sectional prejudice by restoring to the Union the unity of the nation.

"The Medium" will be a party paper, but republican and independent, treating men, measures and parties with a searching scrutiny, guarding against the influence of the United States, and of the United States against the dangerous influence of British financiers and British Diplomacy.

TERMS.

The price of "THE MEDIUM" will be—

Two Cents per copy for the Daily, and Two Dollars per copy for the Weekly, in advance, and no deduction to the Trade, to Clubs, and to Agents

MEYERS' UNIVERSUM.

Edited by Charles A. Dana. This periodical, published from the 1st of July, semi-monthly, will contain views of the most remarkable cities, public edifices, and natural scenes in every zone, and on every continent; accompanied by letter-press descriptions, which will convey the most accurate and trustworthy information, will seek to clothe the dry details of facts and figures with something of the vitality of nature, and to enable the reader, while he observes the history of the political phenomena, to gain some insight into the causes from which they spring. Extensive and costly preparations have been made to present in Philosophical and Chemical Apparatus of almost every description manufactured by

C. B. WARRING.

Ploughfield.
